

1. Double layer control of fleece material

It should be differentiated between one and two layers of a fleece material. For this purpose a color sensor SPECTRO-3-50-FCL is used. The distance to the fleece surface is approximately 50mm. A proper double layer control is possible as shown in the screen shots.

