

1. Color control of different galvanized steel wires

To hold the quality of surface treated steel wire constant a color control after the galvanization process is necessary. For the color control a SPECTRO-3-30-DIL is used. The distance to the object is around 25 mm and as shown in the screenshots a proper differentiation between the different galvanized wires is possible.

